

We listen to K-Love Christian radio and believe it reflects the positive moral values so needed by families and society. It is an encouraging and uplifting radio station. The staff prays for people in need and has led many people to a deeper level of faith. The music is great - very wholesome and good for the entire family. Please keep K-Love going strong! Ardy and Lori Van Winden